EURO DELICACIES BRINGS NEW DINING OPTIONS TO EMPIRE STATE PLAZA

New York State Office of General Services (OGS) Commissioner RoAnn M. Destito today announced today that Euro Delicacies will be operating a restaurant in the Empire State Plaza on a full-time basis starting on Monday, November 4. A favorite for visitors to the Plaza's weekly farmers market, Euro Delicacies will now be serving its Mediterranean and Eastern European dishes Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Swan Street cafeteria next to the Subway restaurant.

Euro Delicacies offers a wide range of food, from salads and pasta to vegetarian specials and chicken dishes to suit a variety of budgets and tastes. Among the most popular items on its menu are spanakopita, eggplant parmigiana, moussaka, and stuffed peppers, as well as baklava.

The cafeteria is located in the Swan Street Building's Core 3 basement level. Customers can access the restaurant via the Concourse Level through the Swan Street Tunnel located at the base of Agency Building 4. Handicap access is available by entering the Swan Street Core 4 Building and taking the lobby elevator to 3B.
