

2016 NYS Purchasing Forum & Trade Show

May 18 & 19, 2016 | Empire State Plaza Albany, NY

Buyers: Save the Date

What is it?

The Purchasing Forum offers government purchasing professionals free training on timely and relevant procurement-related topics. The trade show offers an opportunity to learn from and interact with a variety of businesses including contractors, government organizations, Minority and Women-Owned businesses, New York State food producers, and small businesses. Mark your calendars now and plan to join us!

Who should attend?

- State agency, local government and school district purchasing officials.
- State agency program staff: attorneys, information technology specialists, trade specialists, space planners, and others involved in purchasing decisions.
- Local government officials and staff involved in purchasing: highway superintendents, school business officials and food program managers, town clerks, mayors, supervisors, council and board members.

How do I register?

Registration opens early next year on our website at: www.purchasingforum.ogs.ny.gov. Make sure to visit often as important event information is added in 2016!

For questions, please contact the Customer Services Team (customer.services@ogs.ny.gov or call 518-474-6717).

Office of General Services

Attend free classes designed just for you.

Pick up procurement best practices.

Learn from companies that are doing business with New York State.

Access course materials online all year.

Mark your calendars now and watch for additional information!

Follow Us

@NYSPro

nysprocurement