Bid Protest Decision

The option to bid protest decisions:

- is based solely on the unique facts and circumstances of the respective contract award.
- is not controlling in nature, and
- represents the view of the Office of the State Comptroller when it was rendered. [Those views may now differ based, for example, on later court decisions or statutory amendments.]

Bid Protest Decision

STATE OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE STATE COMPTROLLER

In the Matter of the Bid Protest filed with respect to the acquisition of exercise equipment by the State University of New York, College at Canton, Bid Proposal #062998F

Determination of Bid Protest
SF-08980057

September 9, 1998

This Office has completed its review of the above-referenced procurement by the State University of New York, College at Canton ("SUNY Canton") for exercise equipment and the bid protests filed by American Sports & Fitness Services, Inc. ("American") and G&G Fitness Equipment, Inc. ("G&G"). For the reasons detailed below, we uphold the protests and return the purchase order to SUNY Canton unapproved.

BACKGROUND
Facts

SUNY Canton conducted a procurement for exercise equipment through the use of a Request For Quotation ("RFQ"). The RFQ listed a number of exercise and fitness items
