OGS will be unveiling a new, redesigned website on Tuesday, March 12th. The redesign will provide a more modern, user-friendly experience with improved functionality including mobile support, accessibility, and easy access to the important information you need.

What else does this mean for you? Once the site launches, you'll need to update your bookmarks. All old URLs will, however, redirect to the new site. And it may take Google and other search engines a little time to find and index the new pages. Contract award pages are not part of this redesign but will be improved in a future project.

The site update should be complete by 8:30am on Tuesday, March 12th. Trouble with the site? Broken link? Can't find what you're looking for? Contact the OGS Digital Team at digital@ogs.ny.gov.

We would also like to invite you & your staff to Albany on Tuesday April 30th & Wednesday, May 1st 2019 for the 2019 NYGovBuy, a 2 day procurement training event, where we will be holding seminars on a wide range of purchasing topics, along with hosting a major trade show. For more information on the event visit the NY GovBuy webpage.
