The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP)

- TEFAP is a federal program hosted by the Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) branch of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA)
- The goal of the program is to help supplement the diets of low-income Americans by providing them with emergency food assistance at no cost
- Any foods distributed through USDA programs are called “USDA Foods”
- All USDA Foods, regardless of program, are 100% domestic
- The USDA delegates an agency in each state to administer TEFAP program in their state. These agencies are known as the State Distributing Agency (SDA)

Civil Rights Legal Authorities

Assurances

To qualify for Federal financial assistance, the program application must be accompanied by a written assurance that the program or facility will be operated in compliance with the Civil Rights laws and implementing nondiscrimination regulations.”

A Civil Rights assurance statement must be incorporated in all agreements between Federal & State agencies (FNS Form 74), State & subrecipient agencies, and subrecipient agencies & their local sites.

(FNS Instruction 113-1, Appendix C)

What is discrimination?

“Different treatment which makes a distinction of one person or a group of persons from others; either intentionally, by neglect, or by the actions or lack of actions...”

For FNS programs, complaints are based on one or more of the following six Federally protected bases:

- 1)Race,
- 2)Color,
- 3)National Origin,
- 4)Age,
- 5)Sex,
- 6)Disability.

What is Unlawful Discrimination?

Treating people differently does not necessarily constitute unlawful discrimination.

Examples of non-unlawful discrimination:

- An employer can choose to hire one person instead of another based on merit
- A restaurant can turn people away if admission would cause the establishment to exceed its occupancy limits

Customer Service: Making a Difference

- Treat all people with dignity and respect
- Answer questions in a voice that is non-threatening
- Clearly explain to everyone the rules as well as their rights and responsibilities
- Find and use tools and techniques to improve customer service
- Recognize that participants have varied needs and (sometimes) few resources

Customer Service: Making a Difference

- Notice when a person feels they have been treated in a rude manner
- Develop good listening skills
- Learn to put yourself in their place when necessary
- Learn to deal with a dissatisfied customer
- Improve customer satisfaction
- Ask yourself, “Am I treating this person in the same manner as I treat others?”

Conflict Resolution

Key Points:

- Typically customers who are behaving in a difficult manner usually have not had their expectations met or do not fully understand the role of the worker.
- Often, the customer is focused on getting immediate assistance with solving a problem and does not feel the worker is helping.
- Generally, people do not want to be difficult or argumentative with a caring individual. The customer may not be aware of how their negative behavior is affecting others.

Conflict Resolution

Communication components to defuse a difficult situation...

- Words
- Tone of Voice
- Body Language

A combination of these components when having face-to-face interactions with our customers.

Each component “says” something to our customer.

Conflict Resolution

Tips for working with people during difficult situations:

- Remain calm.
- State that you want to help and ask how you can be of assistance.
- Using information provided, determine what the issue is.
- Take time to try to understand the person's point of view. Listen for details about the concern, situation, or request. Repeat the concern or request to make sure you understand the person's expectations.
- When appropriate, apologize for the situation.
- Offer solutions. Take responsibility for finding a solution, or for putting a solution into action.
- Don't take the situation personally.
- Follow up. Personally make sure that the customer has been satisfied; and provide feedback.

Conflict Resolution

If you have tried to assist the person by providing the best customer service you can, and the person remains argumentative or outright abusive, then do not allow yourself to be abused, and do not argue back. Keep your own sense of self-confidence, but still remain helpful.

Anytime you feel that someone is truly physically threatening, get away from the person and call the Police.

Public Notification

All FNS assistance programs must include a public notification system.

The purpose of this system is to inform applicants, participants, and potentially-eligible persons of:

- program availability,
- program rights and responsibilities,
- the policy of nondiscrimination and
- the procedure for filing a complaint.

Elements of Public Notification

Program Availability

- Inform applicants, participants, and potentially eligible persons of their program rights and responsibilities and the steps necessary for participation.

Complaint Information

- Advise applicants and participants at the service delivery point of their right to file a complaint, how to file a complaint, and the complaint procedures.

Nondiscrimination Statement

- All information materials and sources, including Web sites, used by FNS, State agencies, local agencies, SFAs or other subrecipients to inform the public about FNS programs must contain a nondiscrimination statement. The statement is not required to be included on every page of the program Web site. At a minimum, the nondiscrimination statement or a link to it must be included on the home page of the program information.

Elements of Public Notification

State agencies and their subrecipients must:

- Make program information available to the public upon request;
- Prominently display the “And Justice for All” poster;
- Inform potentially eligible persons, applicants, participants and grassroots organizations of programs or changes in programs;
- Convey the message of equal opportunity in all photos and other graphics that are used to provide program or program-related information;
- Provide appropriate information in alternative formats for persons with disabilities and in the appropriate language(s) for LEP persons.

Nondiscrimination Statement

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form.

To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

Nondiscrimination Statement (Spanish)

De conformidad con la Ley Federal de Derechos Civiles y los reglamentos y políticas de derechos civiles del Departamento de Agricultura de los EE. UU. (USDA, por sus siglas en inglés), se prohíbe que el USDA, sus agencias, oficinas, empleados e instituciones que participan o administran programas del USDA discriminen sobre la base de raza, color, nacionalidad, sexo, discapacidad, edad, o en represalia o venganza por actividades previas de derechos civiles en algún programa o actividad realizados o financiados por el USDA.

Las personas con discapacidades que necesiten medios alternativos para la comunicación de la información del programa (por ejemplo, sistema Braille, letras grandes, cintas de audio, lenguaje de señas americano, etc.), deben ponerse en contacto con la agencia (estatal o local) en la que solicitaron los beneficios. Las personas sordas, con dificultades de audición o discapacidades del habla pueden comunicarse con el USDA por medio del Federal Relay Service [Servicio Federal de Retransmisión] al (800) 877-8339. Además, la información del programa se puede proporcionar en otros idiomas.

Para presentar una denuncia de discriminación, complete el Formulario de Denuncia de Discriminación del Programa del USDA, (AD-3027) que está disponible en línea en: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html y en cualquier oficina del USDA, o bien escriba una carta dirigida al USDA e incluya en la carta toda la información solicitada en el formulario. Para solicitar una copia del formulario de denuncia, llame al (866) 632-9992. Haga llegar su formulario lleno o carta al USDA por:

SUBJECT: Age Discrimination Act of 1975 –Mediation of Complaints

TO: All Regional Civil Rights Directors

This memorandum provides guidance on the processing of discrimination complaints under the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 (Age Act), as amended, 42 U.S.C. 6101 et seq. The Age Act is one of the Federal civil rights laws enforced by FNS CRD that prohibits age discrimination in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Federal regulation, 45 CFR 90, provides general, government-wide rules for the implementation of the Age Act. Last year, the Department issued 7 CFR 15c establishing the policy of non-discrimination on the basis of age in USDA programs and activities and reinforcing the applicability of the policy to each FNS recipient.

These regulations require that all complaints alleging Age Act violations be referred for mediation. Mediation involves the use of an impartial, third-party mediator, who assists the complainant and respondent in reaching terms that both parties find satisfactory, without imposing a decision upon the parties. Mediation offers a faster and more creative resolution of complaints through informal dispute resolution methods, while minimizing expenses to the parties. All of the information obtained in the course of mediation is kept confidential.

Participation in mediation is not optional, but mandatory for both the complainant and the State Agency against whom the complaint is filed. 45 CFR 90.43(c)3; 7 CFR 15c.7(d). State Agencies are not required to reach an agreement or settle the dispute, but must participate in the effort to reach a resolution on a good faith basis.

For these reasons, it is important that every State Agency administering FNS-assisted programs promptly refer all complaints to FNS CRD that allege unlawful discrimination on the basis of age, regardless of whether other bases are alleged. FNS CRD will then forward the complaints to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) upon receipt. Concurring investigations of the complaint should not be conducted while FMCS performs mediation.

This guidance memorandum should be shared with Program Directors in your region and any State Agency deemed appropriate to facilitate cooperation with FMCS and/or FNS CRD staff for compliance with Age Act requirements. If you have any questions, please contact Harriet Komegay, Harriet.Komegay@fns.usda.gov.

Civil Rights Training

- State agencies are responsible for training subrecipient agencies on an annual basis. (Food banks are required to keep a training log documenting yearly trainings of food bank staff and volunteers.)
- Subrecipient agencies are responsible for training their local sites, including “frontline staff” who interact with applicants or participants on an annual basis. (RAs are required to keep a training log documenting yearly trainings of staff and volunteers.)
- New employees must receive training before participating in program activities.
- Volunteers must receive training appropriate to their roles and responsibilities.

Civil Rights Training

All staff should receive training on all aspects of Civil Rights compliance, including:

- Collection and use of data;
- Effective public notification systems;
- Complaint procedures;
- Compliance review techniques;
- Resolution of noncompliance;
- Requirements for reasonable accommodation of persons with disabilities;
- Requirements for language assistance;
- Conflict resolution; and
- Customer service.

Who are persons with Limited English Proficiency (LEP)?

Definition:

“Individuals who do not speak English as their primary language and who have a limited ability to read, speak, write, or understand English.”

LEP and Bilingual Requirements

Title VI and its implementing regulations, Executive Order 13166, and Federal agency guidance require Federal agencies and recipients (State agencies, local agencies, or other subrecipients), to take reasonable steps to ensure “meaningful” access to their programs and activities by Limited English Proficient (LEP) persons.

(FNS Instruction 113-1, Section VII)

LEP and Bilingual Requirements

Factors to consider in addressing LEP:

- Number or proportion of LEP persons served or encountered in the eligible population.
- Frequency with which LEP individuals come in contact with the program.
- Nature and importance of the program, activity, or service provided by the program.
- Resources available to the recipient and costs.

LEP and Bilingual Requirements

Disability Discrimination

What is the definition of disability?

- A person who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such an impairment, or is regarded as having such an impairment.
- Major life activity means functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working. *functions of the immune system, normal cell growth, digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, cardiovascular, endocrine, and reproductive functions (ADA Amendments Act of 2008.)

Disability Discrimination

- Sections 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and USDA implementing Regulation, 7 CFR Part 15b
 - Prohibits discrimination based on disability in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance.

- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 28 CFR Part 35, Title II, Subtitle A
 - prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in all services, programs and activities provided to the public by State and local governments.

- These Civil Rights laws protect persons with disabilities if they are potential applicants or participants in any FNS funded programs.

Disability Discrimination

There is also an obligation to ensure that members of the public are provided accommodations in order to access program information, applications and assistance (i.e. Braille, large print, and audio tape)

Providing qualified sign language interpreters for persons with hearing disabilities may be necessary to effectively communicate with these applicants and participants.

Equal Opportunity for Religious Organizations

7 CFR Part 16.....

- Ensures a level playing field for the participation of faith-based organizations and other community organizations in USDA programs.

Compliance Reviews

- Examine the activities of State agencies, subrecipients, and local sites to determine Civil Rights compliance;
- FNS Civil Rights and Program staff review State agencies.
 - FNS staff and State agencies review subrecipients.
 - Subrecipients review local sites.
- Significant findings must be provided in writing to the reviewed entity and to FNS.

How to file a complaint...

Online:

Fill out a complaint form on the dhr.ny.gov website by answering all of the questions and signing the form. Type the form if possible.

By mail:

If you are filling out the form by hand, please print. You may send the form by postal mail to the regional office nearest you.

By email or fax:

alternatively you can email your complaint to complaints@dhr.ny.gov or fax it to (718) 741-8322.

Please remember: Attach copies of any documents you think will help the Division investigate the case (pay stubs, letter of termination, performance evaluations, etc.)

Due to restrictions imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic, you may return the complaint without notarization.

Compliance Reviews

There are three types of compliance reviews:

- Pre-Award Compliance Reviews
- Routine (Post-Award) Compliance Reviews
- Special Compliance Reviews

Pre-Award Compliance Reviews

State agencies, subrecipient agencies, and local sites must be in compliance with Civil Rights requirements prior to approval for Federal financial assistance.

Routine/Post-Award Compliance Reviews

FNS and State agency must conduct routine compliance reviews as identified by FNS Instruction 113-1 and program-specific regulations/policies

Sample post-award review questions:

- Do printed materials contain the nondiscrimination statement?
- Is the “And Justice For All” poster displayed appropriately?
- Are program informational materials available to all?
- Have all front-line staff/volunteers received their yearly Civil Rights training?
- How are applicants and participants advised of their right to file a Civil Rights complaint of discrimination?
- Are reasonable accommodations appropriately made for people with disabilities?

Special Compliance Reviews

- May be scheduled or unscheduled;
- To follow-up on previous findings of noncompliance;
- To investigate reports of noncompliance by other agencies, media, or grassroots organizations;
- May be specific to an incident or policy;
- History of statistical underrepresentation of particular group(s);
- Pattern of complaints of discrimination.

Resolution of Noncompliance

A factual finding that any civil rights requirement, as provided by law, regulation, policy, instruction, or guidelines, is not being adhered to by a State agency, subrecipient agency, or a local site.

Steps must be taken immediately to obtain voluntary compliance.

A finding's effective date is the date of notice to the reviewed entity.

Verification of Citizenship or Immigration Status

This issue should never give rise to discrimination.

What are New York State's Protected Classes?

- The New York State Human Rights Law states that every citizen has an “equal opportunity to enjoy a full and productive life.” The law prohibits discrimination in employment, housing, credit, places of public accommodations, volunteer firefighting, non-sectarian educational institutions and retaliation for filing a discrimination complaint
- This Law is enforced by the New York State Division of Human Rights (“DHR” or “Division”) through the investigation, hearing, and resolution of complaints filed by individuals against alleged discriminators.

If you believe you are a victim of unlawful discrimination that is not one of the six federally protected classes, but is a class protected by New York State you may file a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights at www.DHR.NY.GOV.

What are New York State's Protected Classes?

- 1) Race
- 2) National Origin
- 3) Sex
- 4) Domestic violence victim status
- 5) Predisposing genetic characteristics
- 6) Retaliation for opposing unlawful discriminatory practices
- 7) Creed
- 8) Sexual Orientation
- 9) Age
- 10) Disability
- 11) Gender Identity or Expression
- 12) Pregnancy-related condition
- 13) Color
- 14) Military Status
- 15) Marital Status
- 16) Lawful source of income (in housing only)
- 17) Prior arrest or conviction record
- 18) Familial status
