This is a concern, whether a conflict actually exists or appears to exist. A Conflict of Interest is not deemed to arise merely by virtue of a member of the Council, an Advisory Group or Workgroup participating in activities or deliberations in the course of appointed duties and in so doing providing advice from the perspective of the organization or entity with which the member is affiliated.

(b) These Conflict of Interest provisions shall apply to all Council, Advisory Group, or Workgroup members, and such members shall be expected to comply with NYS Public Officers Law §§ 73 and 74.

The co-chairs will work with the member to determine whether a Conflict of Interest does in fact exist, and if so, to mitigate or eliminate, most likely through a recusal from a particular Council action or activity.

(d) Council, Advisory Group, or Workgroup members shall not accept gifts or anything of value where it could reasonably be inferred that it is a gift intended to influence the member in the performance of their Council, Advisory Group, or Workgroup duties.
